Suggested Readings and Resources

Arnold RM, Youngner SJ. The dead donor rule: should we stretch it, bend it, or abandon it? Ken Inst Ethics J. 1993;3(2):263-278.

Axelrod DA, Snyder J, Kasiske B. Transplant wobegon: where all the organs are used, all the patients are transplanted, and all programs are above average. Am J Transplant. 2013;13(8):1947-1948.

Beresford TP, Everson GT. Liver transplantation for alcoholic liver disease: bias, beliefs, 6-month rule, and relapse--but where are the data? Liver Transpl. 2000;6(6):777-778.

Bramstedt KA. The ethical complexity of regenerative medicine: growing and sharing livers. Paper presented at: University of Zurich; November 25, 2015; Zürich, Switzerland.

Bramstedt KA. Is it ethical to prioritize patients for organ allocation according to their values about organ donation? Prog Transplant. 2006;16(2):170-174.

Bramstedt KA. Is it ethical to prioritize patients for organ allocation according to their values about organ donation? Prog Transplant. 2006;16(2):170-174.

Health Resources and Services Administration; Organ Procurement and Transplantation Network. Policy 3.6 Organ distribution: allocation of livers. 2012.

Hickox v Christie et al., Case No 2:15-cv-07647.

United Network for Organ Sharing Transplant Living. Legislation.

