PERSONAL NARRATIVE
Through the Student's Eyes: Working in the Shadows
Sara Taub, MA

This month's essay from the patient side of the clinical encounter is not from the patient himself, but through the eyes of his parents. Nicholas Green's father relates the story that Nicholas, the patient, could not tell, a tale of the "simple act" of organ donation.

December Patient Story 1

Sara Taub, MA is a research associate in the AMA Ethics Standards Group.